

Terms & Conditions

Booking, Cancellation & Refund Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to goWILD Karunadu ("Company", "we", "us", "our"). These Terms and Conditions govern the use of our website, booking platform, trekking expeditions, adventure activities, tours, trips, transportation arrangements, accommodations, and other travel-related services.

By accessing our website, making a booking, registering for a trek or trip, making a payment, or participating in any activity organized by goWILD Karunadu, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms and Conditions.

Adventure travel and trekking involve inherent risks. Participants are requested to carefully read all policies, safety instructions, fitness requirements, cancellation policies, and liability disclaimers before making a booking.

If you do not agree with any part of these Terms and Conditions, you should not proceed with the booking or participation.

2. DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these Terms and Conditions:

- Company / Organizer: Refers to goWILD Karunadu, including its employees, trek leaders, guides, representatives, contractors, and authorized partners.
- Participant / Traveller / Customer: Refers to any individual who books, registers for, pays for, or participates in a trek, trip, tour, adventure activity, or service organized by the Company.
- Trip: Refers to any trek, expedition, tour, camping trip, adventure activity, group departure, or travel experience organized by the Company.
- Booking: Refers to a confirmed reservation made by the Participant for a specific trip or service.
- Itinerary: Refers to the planned schedule, route, activities, accommodations, transportation, meals, and other arrangements associated with a trip.
- Force Majeure: Refers to unforeseen circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Company.

3. ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

By making a booking with goWILD Karunadu, the Participant confirms that:

- They have read and understood the trip itinerary.
- They understand the physical and mental requirements of the trip.
- They agree to follow all instructions provided by the trek leader or trip coordinator.
- They understand that itineraries may change due to weather, safety concerns, road conditions, government restrictions, or other unforeseen circumstances.
- They accept the cancellation and refund policies applicable to their booking.
- They understand the inherent risks associated with trekking, adventure travel, and outdoor activities.
- They agree to provide accurate personal and medical information.
- The person making a booking on behalf of other participants confirms that they have the authority to accept these Terms and Conditions on behalf of all individuals included in the booking.

4. BOOKING POLICY

4.1 Booking Confirmation

A booking will be considered confirmed only when:

- The required booking amount or advance payment has been successfully received.
- The Participant has provided the required personal information.
- The Company has issued a booking confirmation.
- The Company reserves the right to decline any booking at its discretion.

4.2 Advance Payment

- Participants may be required to pay an advance amount to reserve their spot.
- The remaining balance must be paid before the deadline communicated by the Company.
- Failure to complete the payment within the specified period may result in cancellation of the booking without further notice.

4.3 Full Payment

For certain trips, especially customized trips, international trips, or trips involving permits and advance reservations, full payment may be required at the time of booking.

4.4 Price Changes

Trip prices may be subject to change due to circumstances including but not limited to:

- Changes in government taxes.
- Permit fee revisions.
- Fuel price increases.
- Transportation cost increases.
- Accommodation cost changes.
- Currency fluctuations.
- Emergency operational expenses.

Any significant changes will be communicated to the Participant wherever reasonably possible.

5. PARTICIPANT INFORMATION

Participants are responsible for providing accurate information during the booking process. This may include:

- Full name.
- Date of birth.
- Contact number.
- Emergency contact information.
- Government-issued identification details.
- Medical information, where required.
- Dietary preferences, where applicable.

The Company shall not be responsible for any inconvenience, cancellation, denied entry, or additional expense caused by incorrect information provided by the Participant.

6. AGE REQUIREMENTS

Certain treks and adventure activities may have minimum or maximum age requirements.

Participants under the age of 18 may be required to travel with a parent, legal guardian, or authorized adult.

The Company reserves the right to deny participation if the Participant does not meet the specified age or eligibility requirements.

7. MEDICAL FITNESS REQUIREMENTS

Trekking and adventure activities may involve significant physical exertion.

Participants are responsible for ensuring that they are medically and physically fit to participate.

Participants should consult a qualified medical professional before joining a physically demanding trek, particularly if they have:

- Heart conditions.
- Respiratory conditions.
- Asthma.
- High blood pressure.
- Diabetes.
- Severe allergies.
- Previous injuries.
- Mental health conditions that may affect participation.
- Any other medical condition that may affect their ability to safely participate. Participants must disclose relevant medical conditions to the Company where requested.
- Failure to disclose relevant medical information may result in removal from the activity for safety reasons.
- The final decision regarding a Participant's ability to continue during a trek may be made by the trek leader or designated safety personnel based on safety considerations.

8. INHERENT RISKS OF TREKKING AND ADVENTURE ACTIVITIES

Participants acknowledge that trekking and adventure travel involve inherent risks. These risks may include, but are not limited to:

- Slips, trips, and falls.
- Uneven terrain.
- Altitude-related illness.
- Extreme weather conditions.
- Heavy rainfall.
- Snowfall.
- Strong winds.
- Heat or cold exposure.
- Landslides.
- Rockfall.
- Flash floods.
- Wildlife encounters.
- Insect bites.
- Road accidents.
- Transportation delays.

- Limited access to medical facilities.
- Communication limitations in remote locations.
- Physical injuries.
- Illness or medical emergencies.

Participants voluntarily choose to participate with knowledge of these risks. Participants are expected to exercise reasonable judgment and follow all safety instructions.

9. SAFETY RULES AND PARTICIPANT CONDUCT

Participants must follow all instructions provided by:

- Trek leaders.
- Guides.
- Trip coordinators.
- Drivers.
- Safety personnel.
- Authorized representatives of the Company.

Participants must not engage in behavior that may endanger themselves or others. The following behavior may result in immediate removal from the trip:

- Consumption of illegal substances.
- Possession or use of prohibited substances.
- Excessive alcohol consumption during restricted activities.
- Harassment or abuse of other participants or staff.
- Physical violence.
- Dangerous or reckless behavior.
- Refusal to follow safety instructions.
- Damage to property.
- Behavior that disrupts the group.

No refund will generally be provided if a Participant is removed from a trip due to misconduct or violation of safety rules.

10. ITINERARY CHANGES

The Company makes reasonable efforts to operate trips according to the published itinerary. However, itineraries may need to be changed due to circumstances including:

- Weather conditions.
- Road closures.
- Landslides.
- Natural disasters.
- Government restrictions.
- Permit issues.
- Safety concerns.
- Transportation disruptions.
- Accommodation availability.
- Medical emergencies.
- Unforeseen operational circumstances.

The trek leader or trip coordinator has the authority to modify:

- Routes.
- Timings.
- Activities.
- Accommodation.
- Transportation.
- Meal arrangements.
- Trek duration.

Such changes may be made without prior notice when necessary for safety or operational reasons. Participants will not be entitled to compensation solely because an itinerary has been modified due to circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the Company.

11. WEATHER CONDITIONS

Weather conditions in trekking and mountain regions can change rapidly. Participants understand that:

- A trek may be delayed.
- Routes may be changed.
- Activities may be cancelled.
- A trip may be shortened.
- A trek may need to be postponed.

The Company prioritizes participant safety over completion of the planned itinerary. A decision made by the trek leader regarding weather-related safety concerns shall be respected by all participants.

12. CANCELLATION BY PARTICIPANT

Participants may cancel their booking by submitting a written cancellation request through the Company's official communication channel.

Cancellation charges will apply based on the number of days remaining before the scheduled departure date.

Suggested Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Period	Refund Eligibility
More than 30 days before departure	90% refund
21–30 days before departure	75% refund
15–20 days before departure	50% refund
8–14 days before departure	25% refund
7 days or less before departure	No refund
No-show	No refund

The Company may modify the cancellation structure depending on the nature of the trip. Certain bookings may involve non-refundable costs such as:

- Permits.
- Flight tickets.
- Train tickets.

- Hotel reservations.
- Transportation bookings.
- Adventure activity reservations.
- Entry tickets.
- Special equipment arrangements.

Such costs may be deducted from the refund amount.

13. REFUND POLICY

Refunds, where applicable, will be processed according to the cancellation policy.

Refund processing may take approximately 7–14 working days after approval.

Refunds will generally be processed through the original payment method wherever possible.

The following charges may be non-refundable:

- Payment gateway charges.
- Bank charges.
- Convenience fees.
- Permit fees.
- Third-party booking charges.
- Insurance charges.
- Non-refundable accommodation deposits.
- Transportation cancellation charges.

The final refund amount will depend on the actual recoverable amount after applicable deductions.

14. NO REFUND FOR UNUSED SERVICES

Once a trip has commenced, no refund will generally be provided for unused services. This includes situations where a Participant voluntarily chooses to:

- Leave the trek.
- Return early.
- Skip activities.
- Refuse transportation.
- Decline accommodation.
- Leave due to personal reasons.

No refund will be provided for meals, accommodations, transportation, or activities that remain unused after the trip has commenced.

15. CANCELLATION OR POSTPONEMENT BY THE COMPANY

The Company reserves the right to cancel, postpone, modify, or reschedule a trip due to circumstances including:

- Severe weather.
- Natural disasters.
- Landslides.
- Floods.
- Government restrictions.
- Safety concerns.

- Political disturbances.
- Transportation disruptions.
- Insufficient number of participants.
- Permit restrictions.
- Emergency situations.

In such situations, the Company may offer one or more of the following options (as applicable): rescheduling the trip, a credit note for a future trip, or a partial/full refund after deducting non-recoverable costs.

By checking "I agree to the Terms & Conditions and Cancellation Policy of goWILDKarunadu" during checkout, the Participant confirms acceptance of the full policy set out in this document.